

MAIN AND FOCUS GALLERY

SELECTIONS FROM THE PACIFIC RIM SCULPTORS GROUP

January 14–March 12, 2005

Formed in 1988 by six San Francisco Bay Area sculptors, the Pacific Rim Sculptors Group (PRSG) was created to establish a new forum for sculptors to meet, exchange ideas, and exhibit their work.

Currently there are more than 150 artist members throughout Northern and Central California. With a mission that hinges on the statement that “cultural vitality and artistic diversity contribute to a healthy society,” this group also works to “increase public awareness of sculpture by promoting public and private sculpture exhibits, education, resource, and outreach programs.”

Selections from the Pacific Rim Sculptors Group serves to provide ICA visitors with an opportunity to experience a wide variety of sculpture from throughout the region. The exhibition includes the work of 15 artists, selected from nearly 400 submissions. The artists are Ed Clapp, Teresa Cunniff, Pam Dernham, Sara Gordon, Peter Hiers, Jane Johnson, Mary King, Nancy Nodelman, Paulette Peterson, Laurie Polster, Susan Steinman, Gina Telcocci, Marta Thoma, Ellen Vogel, and Ann Weber. The resulting presentation has an eclectic feel of originality, fun, and quality craftsmanship with a wide and varied use of materials.

Peter Hiers, For the Next Ark,
2001, maquette for 8ft steel sculpture, steel